THIS APPLICATION IS SUBJECT TO WITHDRAWAL FROM ISSUE AT THE INITIATIVE OF THE OFFICE OR UPON PETITION BY THE APPLICANT. SEE 37 CFR 1.313 AND MPEP 1308.

THE ISSUE FEE AND PUBLICATION FEE (IF REQUIRED) MUST BE PAID WITHIN THREE MONTHS FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS NOTICE OR THIS APPLICATION SHALL BE REGARDED AS ABANDONED. THIS STATUTORY PERIOD CANNOT BE EXTENDED. SEE 35 U.S.C. 151. THE ISSUE FEE DUE INDICATED ABOVE DOES NOT REFLECT A CREDIT FOR ANY PREVIOUSLY PAID ISSUE FEE IN THIS APPLICATION. IF AN ISSUE FEE HAS PREVIOUSLY BEEN PAID IN THIS APPLICATION (AS SHOWN ABOVE), THE RETURN OF PART B OF THIS FORM WILL BE CONSIDERED A REQUEST TO REAPPLY THE PREVIOUSLY PAID ISSUE FEE TOWARD THE ISSUE FEE NOW DUE.

HOW TO REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

I. Review the SMALL ENTITY status shown above.

If the SMALL ENTITY is shown as YES, verify your current SMALL ENTITY status:

A. If the status is the same, pay the TOTAL FEE(S) DUE shown above.

B. If the status above is to be removed, check box 5b on Part B - Fee(s) Transmittal and pay the PUBLICATION FEE (if required) and twice the amount of the ISSUE FEE shown above, or

If the SMALL ENTITY is shown as NO:

A. Pay TOTAL FEE(S) DUE shown above, or

B. If applicant claimed SMALL ENTITY status before, or is now claiming SMALL ENTITY status, check box 5a on Part B - Fee(s) Transmittal and pay the PUBLICATION FEE (if required) and 1/2 the ISSUE FEE shown above.

II. PART B - FEE(S) TRANSMITTAL, or its equivalent, must be completed and returned to the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) with your ISSUE FEE and PUBLICATION FEE (if required). If you are charging the fee(s) to your deposit account, section "4b" of Part B - Fee(s) Transmittal should be completed and an extra copy of the form should be submitted. If an equivalent of Part B is filed, a request to reapply a previously paid issue fee must be clearly made, and delays in processing may occur due to the difficulty in recognizing the paper as an equivalent of Part B.

III. All communications regarding this application must give the application number. Please direct all communications prior to issuance to Mail Stop ISSUE FEE unless advised to the contrary.

IMPORTANT REMINDER: Utility patents issuing on applications filed on or after Dec. 12, 1980 may require payment of maintenance fees. It is patentee's responsibility to ensure timely payment of maintenance fees when due.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Carl Kukkonen on 11/28/12.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1. (Currently Amended) A Wi-Fi switch comprising:
a multi-channel, multi-beam directed signal system configured for 802.11 specification data packet wireless computing communication with both of a first 802.11 client computing device and a second 802.11 client computing device; and an antenna assembly configured to (i) receive and emanate wireless communication within a first directed communication beam with the first computing device via a first channel, and (ii) to receive and emanate a second directed communication beam for data communication reception from the second computing device via a second channel;

wherein;

the multi-beam directed signal system is configured to determine and adjust, by complementary beam-forming, a transmission peak for a particular directed beam in a non-omni-directional manner based on operational information associated with signal routing and further configured to direct a transmission null in a particular direction to maximize power associated with the transmission peak and minimize interference in the particular direction, and the second directed communication beam is at least partially received simultaneous with the emanating of the first directed communication beam.

Claim 16. (Currently Amended) A method, comprising:

generating from a Wi-Fi switch a first directed wireless communication for 802.11 specification data packet communication with a first 802.11 client computing device; receiving the first directed wireless communication at an antenna assembly;

emanating a first directed communication beam, associated with and adjusted for a transmission peak, which is adjusted relative to other beams of a multi-beam directed signal system by complementary beam-forming, in a non-omni-directional manner, for the data communication with the first computing device; directing a transmission null in a particular direction to maximize power associated with the transmission peak and minimize interference in the particular direction; and ~~receiving, simultaneous with emanating the first direct communication beam, a~~ second data communication from a second computing device via a second directed communication beam, wherein the second directed communication beam is at least partially received simultaneous with the emanating of the first directed communication beam.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 3, 5, 8-13, 16-20, 22-24 and 64-65 are allowed.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's independent claim 1 is drawn to a Wi-Fi switch comprising, a multi-channel, multi-beam directed signal system configured for 802.11 specification data packet wireless computing communication with both of a first 802.11 client computing device and a second 802.11 client computing device, and an antenna assembly configured to (i) receive and emanate wireless communication within a first directed communication beam with the first computing device via a first channel, and (ii) to receive and emanate a second directed communication beam for data communication reception from the second computing device via a second channel, wherein: the multi-beam directed signal system is configured to determine and adjust, by complementary beam-forming, a transmission peak for a particular directed beam in a non-omni-directional manner based on operational information associated with signal routing and further configured to direct a transmission null in a particular direction to maximize power associated with the transmission peak and minimize interference in the particular direction, and the second directed communication beam is at least partially received simultaneous with the emanating of the first directed communication beam. This particular combination of elements and functions claimed as Applicant's invention is neither taught nor suggested by the prior art.

Applicant's independent claim 16 is drawn to a method comprising, generating from a Wi-Fi switch a first directed wireless communication for 802.11 specification data packet communication with a first 802.11 client computing device; receiving the first directed wireless communication at an antenna assembly, emanating a first directed communication beam, associated with and adjusted for a transmission peak, which is adjusted relative to other beams of a multi-beam directed signal system by complementary beam-forming, in a non-omni-directional manner, for the data communication with the first computing device, directing a transmission null in a particular direction to maximize power associated with the transmission peak and minimize interference in the particular direction, and receiving a second data communication from a second computing device via a second directed communication beam, wherein the second directed communication beam is at least partially received simultaneous with the emanating of the first directed communication beam. This particular combination of steps and functions claimed as Applicant's invention is neither taught nor suggested by the prior art.

Applicant's independent claim 64 is drawn to a Wi-Fi switch comprising, a multi-beam directed signal system configured for 802.11 specification data packet wireless computing communication with a 802.11 client computing device, and an antenna assembly configured to receive and emanate wireless communication within a directed beam with the computing device, wherein the multi-beam directed signal system is configured to determine and adjust, by complementary beam-forming to increase side lobe levels, a transmission peak for a particular directed beam in a non-omni-directional manner based on operational information associated with signal routing and further configured to direct a transmission null in a particular direction to maximize power associated with the transmission peak and minimize interference in the particular direction, and the multi-beam directed signal system is multi-channel and further configured for simultaneous directed wireless computing communication with a second 802.11 client computing device, the antenna assembly is further configured to emanate the directed communication beam for data communication transmission to the computing device via a first channel, and the antenna assembly is further configured to emanate a second directed communication beam for data communication reception from the second computing device via a second channel. This particular combination of elements and functions claimed as Applicant's invention is neither taught nor suggested by the prior art.

Applicant's independent claim 65 is drawn to a method, comprising, generating from a Wi-Fi switch a directed wireless communication for 802.11 specification data packet communication with a 802.11 client computing device, receiving the directed wireless communication at an antenna assembly, emanating a directed communication beam, associated with a transmission peak, which is adjusted relative to other beams of a multi-beam directed signal system by complementary beam-forming to increase side lobe levels, in a non-omni-directional manner, for the data communication with the computing device, and directing a transmission null in a particular direction to maximize power associated with the transmission peak and minimize interference in the particular direction, transmitting the data communication to the computing device via the directed communication beam adjusted for a transmission peak, receiving a second data communication from a second computing device via a second directed communication beam, and wherein transmitting the data communication and receiving the second directed data communication is simultaneous. This particular combination of steps and functions claimed as Applicant's invention is neither taught nor suggested by the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Periyalwar (US 6,611,695) teaches method and apparatus for assigning frequency channels to a beam in a multi-beam cellular communications system. Periyalwar does not teach transmitting and receiving directed communication beams with a first computing device simultaneous with transmitting and receiving directed communication beams with a second computing device.

Adachi (US 2003/0064752 A1) teaches base station apparatus and terminal apparatus. Adachi does not teach transmitting and receiving directed communication beams with a first computing device simultaneous with transmitting and receiving directed communication beams with a second computing device.

Goetz (US 5,327,143) teaches multiple arm spiral antenna system with multiple beamforming capability. Goetz does not teach transmitting and receiving directed communication beams with a first computing device simultaneous with transmitting and receiving directed communication beams with a second computing device.
